

CINCINNATI CATHOLIC women celebrating 100 years

Catholic Women of Cincinnati June 2017

June, 2017

Another year comes to an end...

It has been a great year for Cincinnati Catholic Women. We have been enlightened at our meetings with discussions about Diversity and how the Bible unfolds the tradition of the Mass we celebrate every week. We've learned more about the Year of Mercy and we continued to celebrate Mary through our Stations of the Cross and our May Crowning.

We have been engaged through our interaction with the girls from Boys Hope / Girls Hope; our collection of baby items for Pregnancy Center East and our assembly of dinners for Mercy Neighborhood Ministries.

And, we have been entertained by our 100th Anniversary Celebration and our look back at all that we have accomplished as a unified group for all these years.

It's been a good year. Thanks to the Board members who stepped up to make sure we had well-planned meetings with good content. Thanks, too, to those who did an outstanding job of pulling together our 100th anniversary celebration. Job Well Done!

As we finish this year, we have our eye on the future and we will be asking for volunteers to help us brainstorm as to what we want to be when we grow up. Look for an email coming your way.

Enjoy your summer. Be safe. We will see you in September.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR MANY CONTRIBUTIONS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR!

May General Meeting May 22, 2017

May Crowning Ceremony/Lynne Kraemer and Marty Cunningham orchestrated the ceremony and music
Meeting Called to order:

8:00 p.m. by Suzy Dorward

1. Financial Update – Teddie Curry
 - a. Teddie gave an update. You can review the financials by
2. House:
 - a. Doors upstairs outside need to be repainted
 - b. Front door/new screen door ordered
 - c. The lead glass window /cost to repair was less than $600 with flashing repair and gutter cleaning
 - d. Bob Burch (handyman) will replace flood lights on outside of the house
3. 100th Anniversary Recap
 - a. Suzy thanked all who were involved on the committee
 - b. Janet Buening thanked the committee as well
 - c. It was noted that many former members attended that mass and some attended the brunch. It was good to see them there and have been invited to “rejoin” the CCW.
 - d. Budget for the event: no final numbers are in, but Janet reported that we were under budget. As of this date, $1,460 spent and a total of $1,293.00 taken in.
 - e. Bunny Jacobs loaned the table cloths and silverware for the brunch.
 - f. Ideas for continuing the celebration throughout the year ... High tea was suggested to be held at the CCW house.
4. 2017/2018 Nominations and vote for board members
 - a. Past president and nominating committee presented 4 candidates for the board:
Marty Cunningham, Liz Glassmeyer, Teddie Curry and Suzy Dorward
 - c. The 4 candidates were unanimously voted in
(note: that there may be a hurdle in attracting board members by having one board meeting per month. A suggestion has been made to shorten the number of board meetings required to make board positions more convenient)
5. What Lies Ahead for CCW
 - a. 2017/2018 Planning Meeting
 - b. Planning meeting date will be set and members will volunteer to attend to begin to plan for next year: Michelle, Nancy, Peggy, Mari Ellen, Janet volunteered to join in the planning. All are welcome. A date for this meeting has not yet been determined.
 - c. Board members will again sign up to lead a meeting next year with the assistance of a member CCW.
6. BHGH
 - a. Define what we would like to do with them in the next year.
 - b. B. Michelle Jones asked for gift cards/donations for graduates who are heading to college to get them ready for school.
7. Pennies from Heaven
